

VENDOR RISK IS UNMANAGEABLE

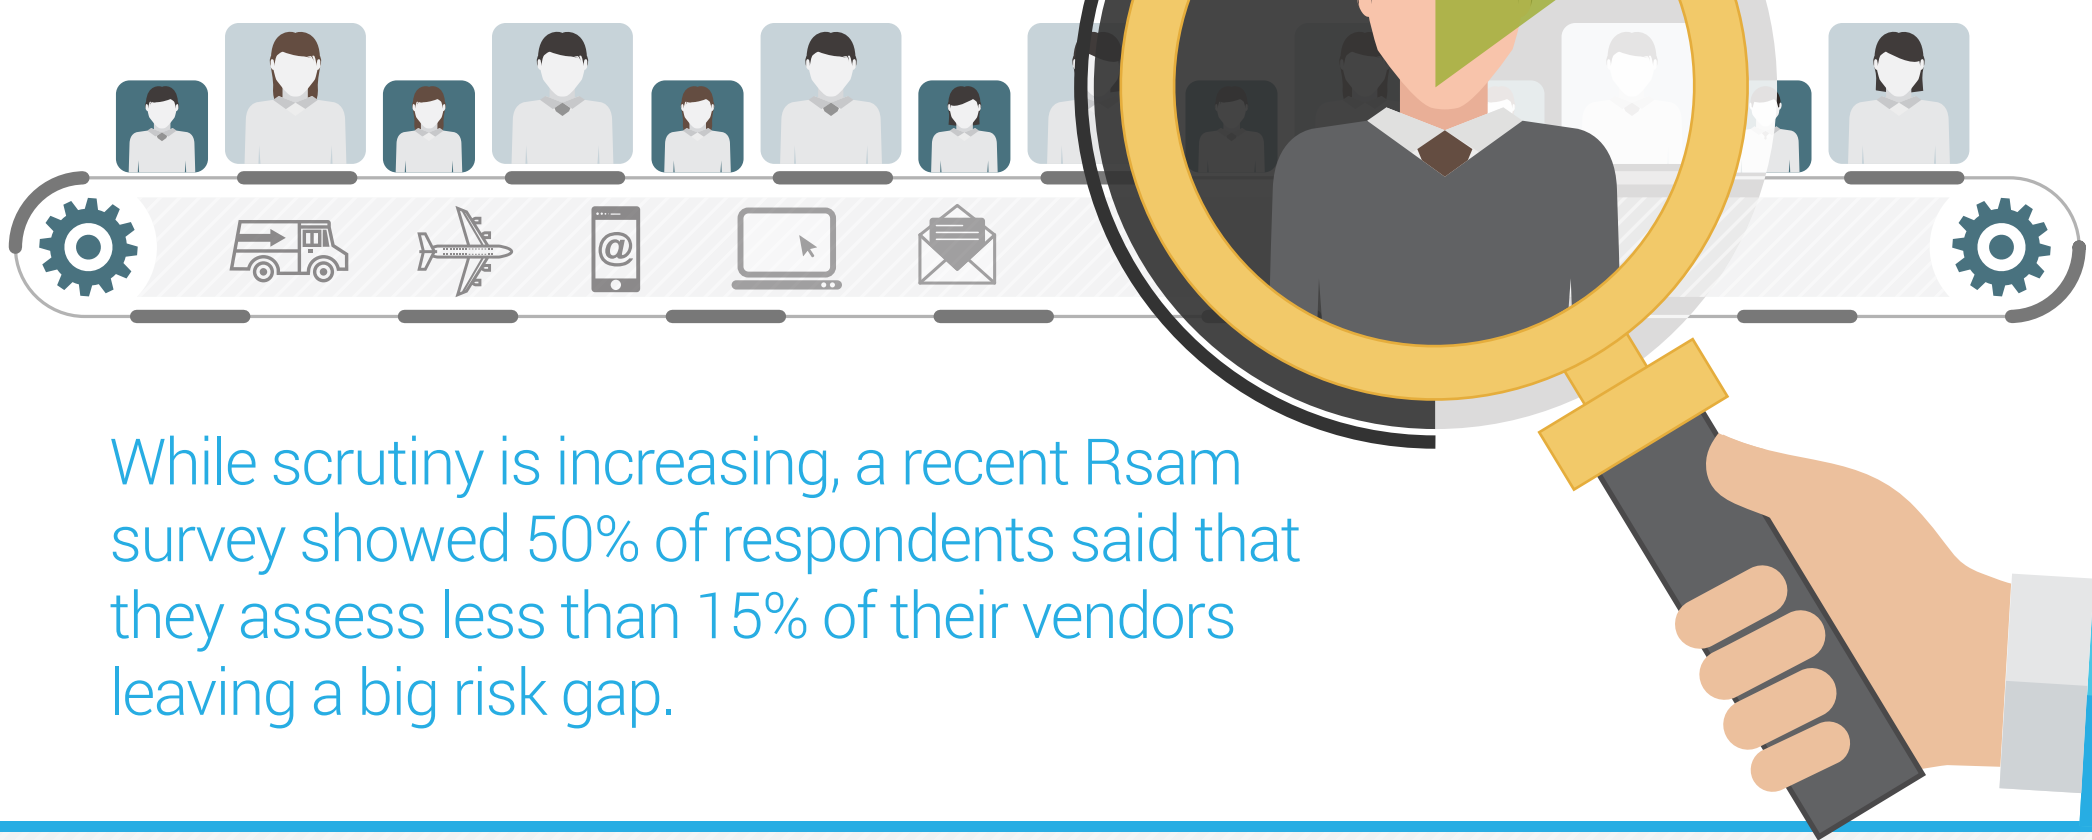

For Most Organizations

The Scope of Vendors to Manage is INCREASING

50% COMPANIES Only Assess

15% VENDORS

While scrutiny is increasing, a recent Rsam survey showed 50% of respondents said that they assess less than 15% of their vendors leaving a big risk gap.

HOW Are Risk Management Teams SPENDING THEIR TIME?

80% Completing Assessments

Organizations spend 80% of their time gathering information for assessments. This is often labor intensive, inefficient and time consuming.

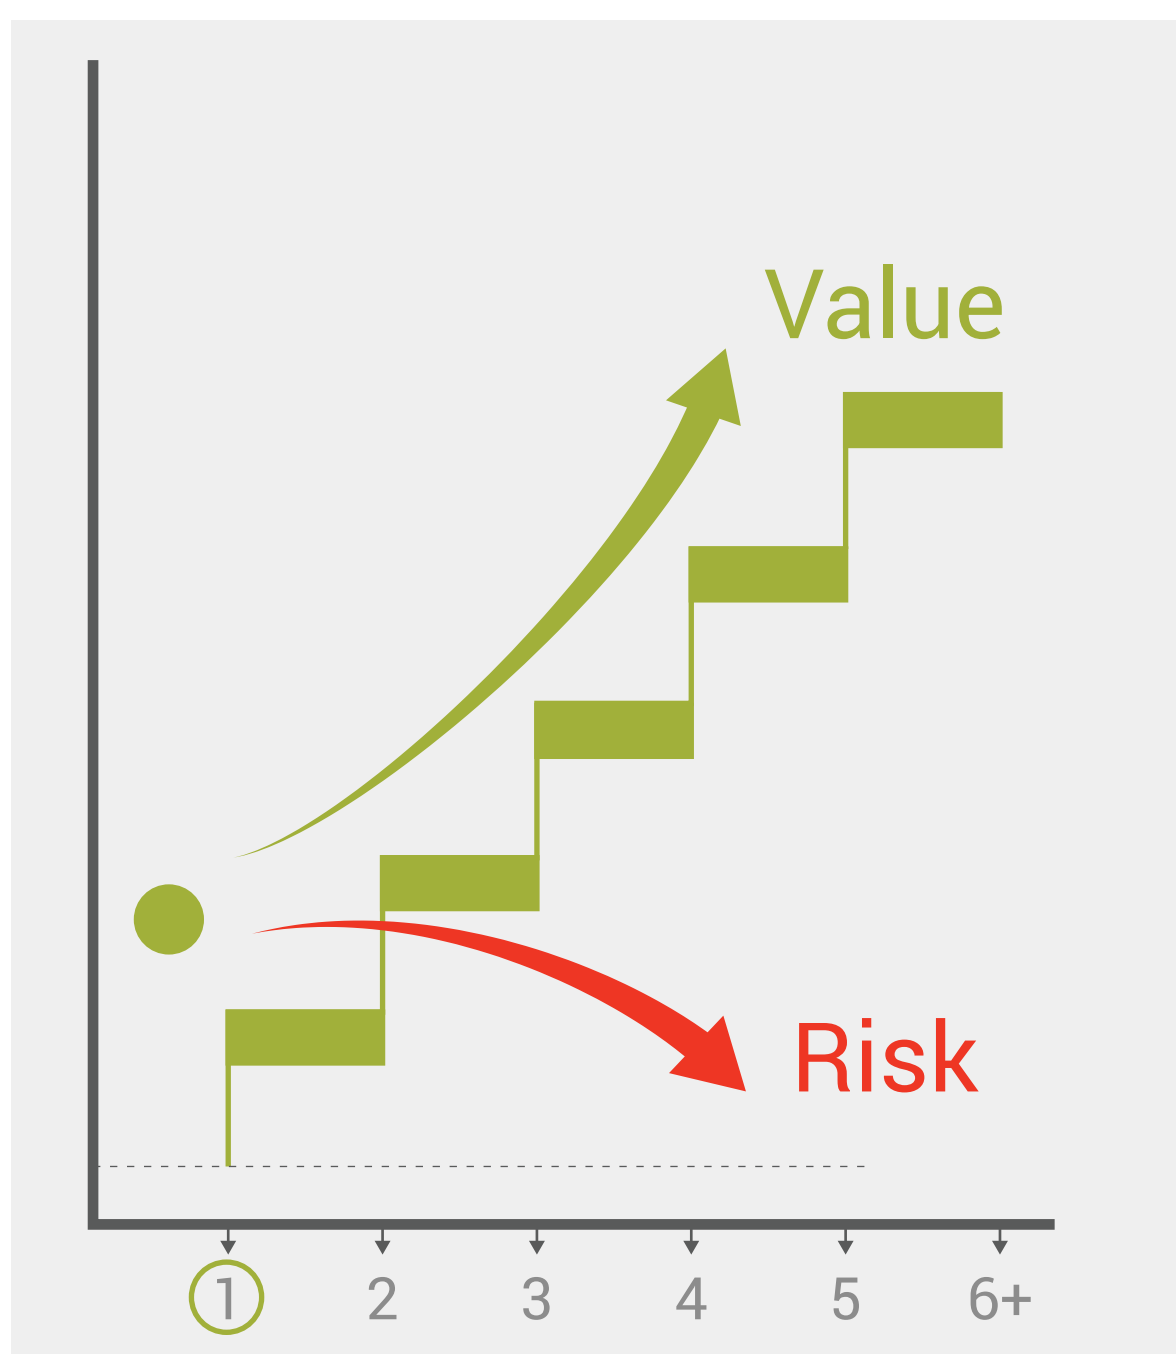

10% Actual Risk Remediation

Organizations spend only 10% of their time on vendor risk remediation.

SHARED RISK IS INCREASING

It Doesn't Have To Be This Way
